ARTICLE 3.

Not more than one residence shall be constructed on any one lot. A lot shall mean a lot as now platted or the ownership of parts of two adjoining lots the total width of which at the front lot line shall not be less than the front lot line of either of the lots as now platted.

ARTICLE 4.

No animals or livestock shall be raised, bred or kept on any lot in said addition except that dogs, cats or other household pets may be kept, provided they are not kept, bred or maintained for any commercial purposes.

ARTICLE 5.

No noxious or offensive activities shall be carried on upon any lot, nor shall anything be done thereon which may be or may become an annoyance or a nuisance to the neighborhood. No ashes, weeds or unsightly objects shall be permitted or suffered to remain on said premises nor shall the premises be used in any way or for any purpose that may endanger the holder or unreasonably disturb the holder of any adjoining land. No fence or wall shall be erected or maintained on any lot in said section without the written consent of Twin Cities Realty Corporation, its successors or assigns first had and obtained.

ARTICLE 6.

No trailer, basement, tent shack or garage shall at any time be used as a residence temporarily or permanently, nor shall any residence of a temporary character be permitted.

ARTICLE 7

No structures shall be moved into any lot.

No garage shall be erected on any lot in said tract except at the time of the erection of or after the completion of such a residence building as is permitted by these restrictions.

ARTICLE 8.

No tank for the storage of fuel oil or any other purpose may be maintained on any of the lots within this Addition, above the surface of the ground, unless the written consent of the Twin City Realty Corporation, its successors or assigns, is first obtained.

ARTICLE 9.

No building shall be placed nearer than ten feet from the inside lot lines; steps, uncovered porches, terraces, chimneys, and cornices may extend not more than twenty-four inches into the side yard. All dwellings and buildings constructed on corner lots must face the direction approved by Twin City Realty Corporation, its successors or assigns, and said approval must be obtained in writing.

Article 10.

No building shall be erected, placed or altered on any lot until the construction plans and specifications and a plan showing the location of the structure has been approved by Twin City Realty Corporation, its successors or assigns, as to quality of workmanship and materials, harmony of external design with existing structures and as to location with respect to topography and finished grade elevation.

Article 11.

No sign of any kind shall be displayed to the public view on any lot except one professional sign of not more than one square foot in size, and/or one sign of not more than five square feet advertising the property for sale or rent. There is reserved to Twin City Realty Corporation, its successors and assigns, the right to construct such signs as they desire in order to foster the promotion of the entire Addition and to effect sales of lots or structures in said Addition.

Article 12.

Easements for installation and maintenance of utilities and surface water drainage are reserved as shown on the recorded Plat.

Article 13.

Landscaping of grading, seeding for grass or sodding must be completed within twelve months of date of start of construction. Each owner must plant, maintain and furnish not less than two living hardwood trees within each lot area. Said trees must not be less than two inches in diameter, measured twelve inches above ground level.

Article 14.

Property owners shall be required in connection with the erection of dwellings to install for each dwelling a post light of similar type, height and distance set back from the street fronting the dwelling as presently installed in the subdivision. The post lights shall be equipped with an automatic operator to provide light from sundown each night to dawn the following morning.

Article 15.

Lot driveways shall be constructed of hard surface paving materials for the full length and width thereof.

Article 16.

So long as a central water supply system is provided to the various lots in the Addition, no private wells for domestic water shall be drilled, dug, or maintained. A suitable sewerage disposal system shall be provided for each residence in the Addition which shall in all respects as to size, location, quality and type of construction conform to all the regulations of applicable State or local health authorities. Approval of such system as installed shall be obtained from the applicable authority.

Article 17.

The builder or owner of each dwelling located in the said Addition shall supply each dwelling with a water meter yoke situate in a convenient location.

Article 18.

These covenants are to run with the land and shall be binding on all parties and all persons claiming under them until January 1, 1990, after which time said covenants shall be automatically extended for successive periods of ten years unless and instrument signed by a majority of the owners of the lots in said Addition has been recorded, agreeing to change said covenants in whole or in part.

Article 19.

The restrictions, rights, reservations, limitations, agreements, covenants and conditions may be enforced by the owner or owners of any lot or lots in said subdivision, any one or more of whom, his or their legal representatives, successors or assigns, shall have the right to sue for and obtain an injunction prohibitive or mandatory, to prevent the breach of or to enforce the observance of the restrictions, rights, reservations, limitations, agreements, covenants and conditions above set forth in addition to the ordinary legal action for damages; that the failure of any owner or owners, of any lot or lots, in said subdivision to enforce any of the said restrictions, rights, reservations, limitations, agreements, covenants and conditions herein set forth, at the time of the violations, shall in no event be a waiver of the rights to do so thereafter.

Article 20.

Invalidation of any one of these covenants by judgment or court order shall in no wise void of the other provisions which shall remain in full force and effect.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, twin City reality Corporation, being the owner of all of the lots in said Addition, has caused this declaration of restrictions to be signed by its Precedent and its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed and attested by its Secretary the 18 day of August, 1964
